Stephen,

My apology - I don't think anything has been uploaded yet. Jim Fleer and I were traveling today and I just arrived back at my office and haven't had a chance to log in yet. I put a call into Jim and will get back to you as soon as I have more information.

Jean

Hi Jean,

I received the Chemrisk file server email and accepted the invitation. However, after logging in, I did not find anything in the Shared – Arkwood folder.

Is this Shared – Arkwood folder the folder that the lab data is planned to be in? And/or is this the folder for the upload of the EPA split sampling data?

Thanks,

Stephen L. Tzhone
